

As a resident of indiana i have greatly appriciated not having these phone calls trying to sell me something. The mortgage loans companies were the worst. now they are sending 3 to 4 mailings a week for loan applications. My feeling is if they have to call me and tell me abot a deal then it is not something i am looking for because i would have found them.